

Palmerston Golf Academy November Lesson Offers

Winter.....IS the best time to build a better game.

The pros call it the off-season and unless you live in a part of the world where the sun shines all the time playing winter golf isn't much fun. Instead invest into a package of lessons and some quality practise on the fantastic Academy facility you will see improvement and more enjoyment in your game next year. We have seen in previous winters players games benefit year on year with such a strategy so if you don't want to play with 'the same old same old' game next season, stop, and commit to change and improve your golf game now by teaming up with one of the academy professionals to work with you improve your game and enjoy improvement next year: Don't struggle in the wind and rain for four hours every weekend it will damage your game.

Kick-Start your winter off-season improvement
